President's message

How quickly this year is going! It is only a couple of weeks before we will be enjoying Lace West at Avalon Homestead in Toodyay.

The workshops which will be available at Lace West are Heather Billington's Bedfordshire, Bucks Point and Torchon workshops as well as Britt's needlelace workshop.

There are still places available in Britt's workshop, or if you are really keen to have a weekend away and would like to "do your own thing" there are still beds available, so contact Josephine. The cost of the weekend is $300.00 plus $95 if you want to stay Thursday night as well.

I have just received patterns from Heather Billington for her workshops, and will have them in the post to you this week

I am sorry that I missed the Lace day at Wanneroo. I understand that Margaret Lewington gave an excellent talk on her collection of bobbins. Margaret, we may need to schedule that talk again for another lace day!

We have recently been asked about insurance. The Australian Lace Guild takes out a national cover for Public Liability insurance. Beverley Clark will provide each group with a copy of the certificate so that you can provide it when you are hiring a hall for Lace meetings. It is also a requirement of the insurance that each group keep an attendance list for each meeting, including your weekly meetings.

Alexandra Stillwell, a UK lacemaker, is coming to Australia as the international tutor for the ALG workshops in Sydney in September where she will be teaching Floral Bucks. We are fortunate to have her coming to Perth prior to Sydney, and have asked that she teach Honiton and Bedfordshire laces from Friday 16th to Sunday 18th September. The venue is still to be advised. The cost will be a maximum of $200 for the three days, so start saving now!

I am looking forward to catching up with everyone at the Embroiderers Guild Lace day later this month

Happy Lacemaking

Kate Gentelli

AROUND THE STATE

ALBANY

The New Year has heralded big changes for the Albany Lace Group. Having met in the Vancouver Arts Centre (previously the old Albany Hospital) for over twenty years, we have moved to a building in "The Church of Living Waters in Lower King.

Monday saw a full complement of Lacemakers, and a bit of scrambling for room, as we tried different configurations of seating. The new venue is lovely and bright and we are able to meet there from 10am to 4pm which was not possible in the VAC.

Several ideas for this year's activities were put forward, and for our September Workshop (8th and 9th) will be Bucks Point, taught by Zetta. We encourage Lacemakers to put these dates in your diary, as Albany is lovely in Spring and we will give you all a warm welcome.

Alice has kindly offered to run a mini workshop in May to familiarise ourselves with the Bucks technique, and also to co-ordinate the many lace books owned by our members, so that we have access to lots of information.

It was very encouraging to have all our members present, and to meet Libby, a new member, who is trying to encourage several of her friends to learn lacemaking.

A good start to the year.

MANDURAH MUTTERINGS

We are trying to get a speaker for our lace day. She has some very fine Chinese embroidery and we think that some of our lacemakers will be interested in what she has to say. Mandurah's lace day has been set for the 22nd October, and we will pick up any train travellers on that day.

This group is going along nicely and we usually spend the day making lace, gossiping, and solving the worries of the world.

EMBROIDERER' GUILD LACE GROUP

In January we started with three informal get-togethers at members' houses. At our first meeting at Guild House we had 20 lacemakers. Some started new projects, others continued with work in progress whilst others enjoyed a chance to chat and catch up.

BUNBURY BALDERDASH

Not much to report this month as nothing has happened within our group. The heat has taken the sting out of any enthusiasm for the time being.

We have given some thought regarding our 10th Anniversary celebrations, so we'll be busy working toward the event soon.

I and four other ladies spent a day demonstrating at the Dardenup Heritage Park recently and drew a lot of interest from the large crowds that streamed in all day.

Also three of us will be demonstrating at the Bridgetown Heritage Day at the end of the month which is always a lot of fun.

I, Heather Powell & Diane Birch are looking forward to the Lace West weekend in Toodyay. We'll go anywhere to get away from home!! No cooking, dishes to do, beds to make. Yippeeee!

ROYAL SHOW

Creative Craft and Cookery Exhibitor's Information Day

Date: Tuesday 10th May 2011

A flyer regarding this event has been included with Lace Yarns sent to group contacts. Could you please draw this to the attention of your members.

PLEASE NOTE

Zetta apologises that she is unable to attend the Embroiderers' Guild Lace Day on 26 March as she has another engagement.

She will be taking her 'gear' to Toodyay but if anyone wants threads prior to that weekend she can have them taken to Perth on 27 March.

Please ring her on 9721 2978 to make arrangements.
